ELECTRIC CITY SPARKLETS

Items of Interest and Personal Mention Caught Over the Wireless on the Streets of Anderson

The Hot WeatherN

Lessened Drunks.

Whether or not it may be charged to the hot weather is a question for debate but certain it is that the number of drunks hauled in by the Anderson police within the last few days has dwindled almost to nothing. The officials are inclined to believe that the hot weather has been responsible for the decided change, and this seems to be plausible at least. Not nearly so many have been arrested on the charge of drunkenness this month as usual although there are never very many to face this charge in Anderson.

Elks Uniforms

Have Arrived.

The uniforms decided upon by the Anderson lodge of Elks to be worn by the local members of the order have arrived and were yesterday on display at Parker & Bolt. The uniform for the local lodge will consist of a white hat with purple band, blue coats and white trousers, white shoes and purple socks and purple neckties. The Anderson lodge should be as tastefully attired as any of the delegations and owing to the fact that the local lodge will exceed in numbers all other lodges, the Anderson boys should make quite a show.

Time Expired

For Enrolling.

The time has now expired for voters to enroll in the approaching municipal election and promptly on the stroke of midnight last night it was too late for any tardy voters to get their names on the rolls. This is in accordance with the rules adopted at a recent meeting of the city democratic executive committee, at which time it was stated that the books would close on the 10th. Those voters failing to be enrolled in their respective precincts before yesterday will be barred from voting. It is understood that practically all voters got their names on the club rolls and it is not believed that many will be prevented from casting a ballot in the city election, which is to take place on June 16.

Farmers of State

Come to Anderson.

T. T. Wakefield, who filled the office of president of the Anderson county Farmers Union for a number of years, spent yesterday in the city and while here told a reporter for The Intelligencer that plans are underway for making the next convention of the State Farmers Union, which meets here about July 25, one of the "biggest and best" ever held anywhere in the State. Mr. Wakefield said that July 25 had not been definitely determined upon as the time for the convention to convene but that it will be within one or two days of this date. Farmers will come to Anderson from all parts of the State and the meeting should be filled with interest. A meeting of the Anderson county union is to take place Tuesday, at which time plans will be made for entertaining the State Association. Owing to the fact that court will be in session the meeting will be held in the city hall.

After you have seen Samson at the Bijou today you will believe anything we may say hereafter in regard to a picture.

Rothrock Says

Prospects Good.

J. W. Rothrock, farm demonstrator for Anderson county, yesterday told a reporter for The Intelligencer that conditions in Anderson county are not nearly so bad as some people might believe. Mr. Rothrock says that crops have undoubtedly been behind in this county, but that the rains of yesterday will have crops on an average with last year by July 1. He says that some sections have been all right ever since the crops were planted, while other sections have had hardly more than a 25 per cent. stand but that he expects yesterday's shower to bring them all out and put all sorts of crops in splendid shape. He was jubilant over the rain.

What Waiting

On Point of Law.

When asked yesterday by a reporter for The Intelligencer as to whether or not he had served notice on the town proprietors to keep their wares inside the building and off the streets, Chief Lee said that he had not yet done so. He explained that certain property owners on Whitaker street claim that they own a portion of the sidewalk along the business section and toward enforcing the ordinance under the city attorney could investigate the matter. At Tuesday night's meeting of city council it was decided that merchants must abandon the practice of placing their goods in front of their buildings.

Ames Trial On

Interesting Case.

The first case to be called at the approaching term of the Court of General Sessions is that against the Rev. J. D. Crout, in which he is being sued by a lady for an equitable division of certain lands. This case was tried at the last term of the Court of Common Pleas for Anderson county and lasted for over two days, resulting in a mistrial. It will be the first case called at this term when court convenes Monday morning at 10 o'clock and it has been allotted two days, Monday and Tuesday, on the roster. It is not believed that even two days will be sufficient to finish it.

Samson contains six parts. 600 scenes and employs 2000 actors in its production at the Bijou today.

Negroes Fear

The End Is Near.

Anderson negroes have heard the story coming from Atlanta about the end of the world and they are much wrought up. It seems that a few days ago a boy caught a fish out of a pond near Atlanta and on fish's back could be plainly seen several letters. Two of these could be deciphered as "C" and "N" and several Atlanta people finally puzzled out that the working on the back of the fish said "The End is Coming." This was taken by them to mean that the end of the world is in sight and since that time every negro in Atlanta has been putting in his time shouting and praying and attending revival services.

New Representative

Of R. G. Dunn & Co.

E. L. Stacy of Greenville, representing R. G. Dunn and Company, was in Anderson yesterday. Mr. Stacy has just come to Greenville from one of the northern offices of the concern, succeeding D. A. Bottom, who was manager of the Greenville office for a number of years. This was Mr. Stacy's first visit to Anderson and he said that he was surprised by the bustle and push to be seen on every side here. He was also surprised at the size of the city and on the whole was delighted with his visit to Anderson.

We could only book Samson for one day at the Bijou so you had better make sure of this opportunity. You'll never see its like again.

Sandlappers Do

Not Talk Much.

According to recent figures from the census department at Washington South Carolina people do not believe in talking to any great extent—that is over the telephone. According to these figures South Carolina has fewer telephone users than any other state in the union, there being but 21 instruments to every 1,000 people in South Carolina. The most reasonable explanation to be offered for this fact that South Carolina's negro population is so great. North Carolina is almost as low in the column as this State.

All-Corners

Invited Here.

All-corners are welcome to try their hands at a mathematical problem perplexing to Anderson people yesterday. It is no catch but to figure this out a graduate of Yale or Harvard or some other well known institution or else the man finding the answer must be a "sure fiend." Here it is, now go to it.

"If a third of six were three.

"What would the fourth of twenty be?"

"Maybe you can work this and then again maybe you can't, but the answer is seven and one-half."

Baseball Game

Was Rained Out.

When the time came for the scheduled game between the Anderson Y. M. C. A. and the Anderson league yesterday afternoon there was little time for thoughts of baseball. It was raining and that was "nuff said." Everybody preferred looking at the rain, even if a game had been in progress and again the diamond was entirely too wet to play. It is probable that the Y. M. C. A. Champs and the league players will have a session at Buena Vista park this afternoon and the attendance at this first game should be good. Other towns are staging exhibition games. "Tommy" Stouch having arranged to journey to Laurens Saturday with his "big leaguers" and show the natives of that village how the national game should be played.

Picnic Arranged

For Presbyterians.

The annual picnic of the Central Presbyterian church will take place today. The Sunday school and all members of the church desiring to make the trip are asked to meet at the court house square this morning in time to take the 10:30 car for Williamston, where the dinner will be spread. This bids fair to be one of the most enjoyable events of the season and it goes without the saying that there will be a large number to make the trip. All arrangements have been made for a delightful stay in Williamston.

Meeting Today

Of Importance.

Notice has been issued by the officers of the Ladies' Civic Association to the effect that a very important meeting of that body will be held at the Chicago hotel this afternoon at 5:30 o'clock. The president desires to map out some plans for future work and it is believed that a number of applications for membership will be received at this meeting.

Opening Gun

Fired Tonight.

The opening gun in Anderson's municipal campaign is to be fired tonight when the candidates will speak at the court house. Much interest was manifested yesterday and it is a sure bet that the would-be office holders will not lack for an audience when they mount the platform tonight. The executive committee has limited every speaker and no candidate will be allowed to take up more than his time.

Little Boy

Died Tuesday.

David Lyles, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Lyles, died Tuesday night about 9 o'clock at the home of his parents of Blackley street. The

A MERICAN ingenuity in warfare is baffling to the Mexicans who object to our occupation of the city of Vera Cruz. For instance, it was difficult for the fighters below the Rio Grande to understand how the United States warships in the harbor got their accurate range so quickly in firing their guns. The illustration shows that the top one reason for it. The white patch is an explosion of dynamite set off on the outskirts of Vera Cruz by Yankee infantrymen. The smoke rises and shows the gunners on the warships just where an attack may be expected. Thus the work of the range finders is made easy. At the bottom is a squad of United States regulars defending a position protecting a railroad bridge on the Inter-oceanic railroad.

Little fellow was only two and one-half years of age, but he was bright and a boy of unusual accomplishments for one so young. The funeral services were held at the home yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock and the interment took place in Silver Brook cemetery.

Added Service

On the C. & W. C.

The Anderson office of the Charleston & Western Carolina railway announced yesterday that another Pullman had been placed on their lines, this being on the train running from Augusta to Asheville. This train will connect with the Anderson train and doubtless it will prove of benefit to a number of Anderson people as they are en route to the mountains this summer.

New Building

Renowned Street.

B. O. Evans, who recently purchased part of the property known as the Miss Lizzie Williams estate, is negotiating for extensive improvements. The property that he purchased faces the square and is on Benson street, just in the rear of Evans' Pharmacy No. 2. The property will be given a thorough overhauling and will be made one of the noblest stores in the city. Sayre & Baldwin are now working on the plans. Mr. Evans' present handsome home for his business was an old store treated in the same manner and is in effect a brand new building.

Picnic Today At #### Simpson's Mill.

The Sunday school pupils and the members of the First Presbyterian church of Anderson are anticipating today with a great deal of pleasure. The annual picnic of this church will take place today, being held at Simpson's mill. There is no more delightful spot in the county than this place and the mere fact that it is to be held there will assure the success of the picnic. The start will be made from church this morning at 9 o'clock and automobiles will be provided to carry those desiring to go.

SUFFRAGE LEADER OUTWITS POLICE

Mrs. Pankhurst Is At Home Eluding the Detectives of Scotland Yard

London June 10.—The elusive Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, the militant suffragist leader, again succeeded last night in evading the police, who were closely watching the house in Grosvenor Square from which she had been recently conducting the campaign against the peace of members of the Liberal family at Buckingham Palace and other places. Her plan of escape is said by the police to have been "cleverly conceived" although the details were not made public today. The ingenuity of the woman and the ability to circumvent the trained brains of Scotland Yard whenever circumstances demand a real contest of wits are giving cause for keen anxiety at police headquarters.

The raid on the officers of the Women's Social and Political Union, like that early in May, did not produce the results expected by the police. The documents seized revealed very few names of public interest. Chief Inspector James McEwen said today that the published report of the disclosure during the raid that members of the Royal family including the Prince of Wales had contributed to the funds of the militant suffragettes was groundless.

A resolution strongly condemning militancy and demanding urgent action by the government to stop the reign of anarchy was adopted today by a large majority of the conference of the Women's Liberal Federation now in session in London.

Lady Carlisle, the president, in moving the resolution, spoke of the "terrible scourge of violent methods which were exactly opposite from their constitutional methods and hindered the woman suffrage movement." She added:

"The disastrous example of unchecked violence of these criminal wreckers is injuring the moral fibre of a considerable number of men and women in this country."

Lady Carlisle denounced as "spurious sentimentality and a travesty of chivalry" the theory that women should not be made to suffer the same penalties meted out to men under the law. Her remarks were received with cheers.

Norway Follows.

Christiania, Norway, June 10.—The Norwegian parliament today followed the lead of Secretary of the Navy Daniels and adopted a resolution prohibiting the use of intoxicating liquors by officers of the Norwegian army and navy during their terms of service. Enlisted men were already enforced abstainers and the officers' messes on the warships and in the garrisons now are to be made "dry."

RITTENBERG CASE

Three Charleston Men Charged With Assault on Him.

Charleston, June 10.—On charges of conspiracy, assault, and assault and battery of a high and aggravated nature a true bill was found yesterday against George Hartnett and James K. Livingston by the grand jury of this county. Hartnett and Livingston are alleged to have deceived Sam Rittenberg, a member of the Charleston delegation of the house of representatives to the Argyle hotel a few weeks ago, and there struck him several times, bruising him about the face considerably. Hartnett, Livingston and Rittenberg were taken in charge by the police after the affair at the hotel, but upon being taken to the police station the three were released without charge being docketed against any one. It is not known whether the cause against Hartnett and Livingston will be tried during the present term of court. No warrant was sworn out before a magistrate in the case of the assault, but the charges were taken direct to the acting solicitor and grand jury.
